Charity trustees' duties and responsibilities

The charity trustees of Cormonachan Community Woodlands Limited are jointly responsible for running the charity and managing its assets. By law they must do certain things, such as the following:

Publicise its charitable status and provide information to the public: you must let people know that Cormonachan Community Woodlands Limited is a charity by including its charity name and charity number on its literature, emails and web pages (where applicable), and also on documents issued by a third party on the charity's behalf. You have six months from the date of this letter to comply with the duty to publicise the charity's status. You must also supply a copy of your accounts and constitution to anyone who asks for them. You can find full details of these duties on our website in the section on charity trustees' duties.

- Annual monitoring: every year, you must provide information to us about the activities of your charity, and by law we must monitor all charities on the Register. Your charity must fill in an Online Annual Return and send this to us along with its accounts. You can find out more about preparing your accounts and reporting to us on our website www.oscr.org.uk.
- Making changes to the charity: you need to get our consent before taking certain actions, and must tell us about certain decisions you have taken. You can find out when and how to do this on the 'Making changes to your charity' section on our website.

We have sent a copy of this letter and the introductory leaflet 'Being a charity in Scotland' to all those trustees who have provided OSCR with an email address. Please distribute this letter and the introductory leaflet to any trustee who have not provided OSCR with this information.

You can contact us at info@oscr.org.uk or on 01382 220446 if you have any questions.
