

Cormonachan Community Woodlands
Maintenance Tasks to complete by Cormonachan Community Woodlands Volunteers from 1st April 2021 to 31st March 2022

Paint Contemplation Shelter (brown)

Paint Red Squirrel Hide (brown)

Paint Storage Shed (brown)

Paint top finial on Contemplation Shelter

Improve entrance to Contemplation Shelter (build two more steps)

Clean Red Squirrel Hide

Clean windows on Red Squirrel Hide

Maintain self closing system on Red Squirrel Hide

Clean ditch to west of the Contemplation Shelter

Cut back branches by the Contemplation Shelter

Improve steps to entrance to Liz Evans's Oak Tree

Improve path to Liz Evans's Oak Tree

Put up new existing Paths Signs

Put up interpretation sign & lectern at Settlement

Bury matting on path to the Red Squirrel Trail

Put up No Overnight Parking sign in new car park when constructed

Sweep concrete pad at entrance to car park

Sweep inside of the Contemplation Shelter

Prune back/remove saplings in all the paths ditches

Cut back self seeded Sitka spruce alongside the paths

All sides of 2.5 km paths cleared of most Sitka

Cut back Rhododendron ponticum in all areas

Clear weeds from around newly planted native trees

Top up Red Squirrel Feeders

Pesticide spray all re-growth of Rhododendron ponticum

Check on free flow of all Culverts

Clean out Ditches

Clean Picnic Tables

Clean Benches

Paint sign posts

Paint fence posts

Strim all paths (commenced from May 2021)

Maintain Sculptures & replace hanging log sculpture

Prune overhanging branches on all paths

Burn cut down brash

Burn cut down Rhododendron ponticum

Slash Bracken

Pesticide spray car park perimeters

Cut up and clear logs from Settlement area

Burn brash from new paths route and move logs

Maintain Tools

Service Chainsaw

Service 2 Strimmers

Survey high risk trees around all paths (FES)

Miscellaneous maintenance as required