Subject: Cormonachan Woodlands Association Members Update (4)

To: All Members of the Cormonachan Woodlands Association

The Cormonachan Woodlands Association will be having a stand at the Loch Goil Harvest Festival at the Village Hall, Lochgoilhead on Saturday 5th September 2015 between 11 am and 2 pm. We hope to see you there.

The first Cormonachan Woodlands Association's Volunteers Weekend will be on Saturday 24th & Sunday 25th October 2015.

There will be a lot of professional rangers there also volunteering for the weekend from Fife Countryside Rangers.

If you are able to help out as a volunteer on one or both days would you let us know as soon as possible please as we need to purchase tools for our volunteers and Forestry Commission Scotland have agreed that we can get a 100% grant for the tools if we apply now.

A programme of maintenance in the woodlands will be prepared at the association's next committee meeting on 29th September and a further Members Update will follow after the meeting.

We are well aware that some members are only able to support the association whereas others are very happy to volunteer to help look after the woodlands – All help in any way is greatly appreciated.

We look forward to know who may be able to volunteer and on which days – Thank you!
